Louvain-la-Neuve, Belgium
Louvain School of Management (IAG)
Fall Quarter
Mid-September to Mid-December, 2008

Program Description: Students earn 15 credits while studying at the largest French-speaking university in Belgium, Université Catholique de Louvain (UCL). Students attend business courses offered in English at the Louvain School of Management, and they can also learn French. These credits count towards CoB's Bachelor's requirements.

Course Descriptions: Students can choose from a variety of international business, finance, marketing, management, operations management, management information systems, quantitative methods, business policy and French language courses. A description can be found on the university web site www.iag.ucl.ac.be/international/handbook/ - choose "study information."

Eligibility: All CoB/UC students who are currently in their junior or senior year: CoB students must have completed Global Business Environment (22INTB390) and the core classes in their focus prior to participation. Applicants must have a 3.0 GPA.

Living Accommodations: Students live in apartments, share a house with students or rent a room in a private home.

Transportation: Students are responsible for their own round trip airfare between home and Belgium. Brussels in fact has an international airport with connecting flights to London, Paris and Amsterdam. Rail travel from these cities is also an option, and students may wish to purchase a Eurail pass for extensive travel.

Travel Documents: 1) Passport - Download the passport application from www.travel.state.gov/download_applications.html. (Allow 12-14 weeks for delivery.)

2) International Student ID: $22 available from UC International, 3134 One Edwards.

Grants: You can apply for a UC international programs grant of up to $500, so long as you will be returning to UC for one quarter following your study abroad program and so long as you have not received a UC International grant in the previous 12 months. CoB scholarships for an additional $400 are available to CoB students.

Note: You are also responsible to pay UC full time tuition fall quarter.

Application Deadline: May 1, 2008

Université catholique de Louvain is established in the new city of Louvain-la-Neuve just 45 minutes by train from Brussels, the administrative heart of the European Union. UCL is a French-speaking university founded in 1425. It welcomes some 20,000 students, 450 of which are exchange students. Based on a unique urban design, the city of Louvain-la-Neuve is a pedestrian only town with the university at its focal point. The city offers the traditional attractions of a university campus, along with the necessary libraries, sports facilities, cinemas, restaurants, stores, train station, and services all within walking distance.

For more information about UCL and the city of Louvain-la-Neuve, visit http://www.iag.ucl.ac.be/international and http://www.ucl.ac.be/en/life/lln.html

For more information contact:
Lee Armstrong, Associate Director, International Programs
Tel: 556-7081, Suite 103 Lindner Hall
lee.armstrong@uc.edu