The University of Cincinnati Real Estate Roundtable Begins Membership Drive

The University of Cincinnati is gearing up for the 2009/ 2010 Roundtable Series by kicking off its membership drive. Membership cost is $300 for the academic year beginning in October and ending in May, which includes nine hours of complimentary Continuing Education. The Roundtable is also offering a new membership to recent University of Cincinnati Alumni.

The UC Real Estate Center recognizes the challenges our recent graduates are facing in these tough economic times. Securing permanent employment in this environment is almost impossible and valuable networking is necessary. In light of this, we are offering recent UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI (2007-2009, any college) graduates a special Grad Member Roundtable membership.

The Grad Member roundtable membership is $150 for the entire year; $85 for the October, November, December and January meetings, which includes 3* hours of complimentary Continuing Education; or $95 for the February, March, April and May meetings, which includes 6 hours of Continuing Education. The Grad Member membership can only be used by the name holder on the membership and is not transferable for any meetings to other non-members.

This year's schedule is also offering an additional, special Roundtable meeting in May that will offer preferential seating to members, and three extra hours of complimentary continuing education for nine for the entire year, as opposed to six in previous years.

For more information on membership details, registration, payment and schedule, please contact Kate Bridgman in the UC Real Estate Center at 556-7082, real.estate@uc.edu, or check out our website at <http://www.business.uc.edu/realestate>.
